Dear Hiring Manager,

I am excited to apply for the Freelance To Full Time Prompt Engineer position at Acme Corporation, which I discovered on your careers page. With extensive experience in prompt engineering, I am eager to leverage my skills to enhance your projects and contribute to your innovative team.

Additionally, I collaborated with a tech startup to create prompt frameworks that streamlined their chatbot communication, reducing average response time by 40% and enhancing user satisfaction scores. These experiences have equipped me with a deep understanding of user-centric design and the technical acumen necessary for effective prompt engineering.
