

Emily Johnson

January 16, 2026

Acme Corporation

RE: Internship Preschool Teacher

Dear Hiring Manager,

I am writing to express my enthusiasm for the Internship Preschool Teacher position at Acme Corporation, which I discovered on your careers page. As an aspiring educator with a passion for early childhood development, I am excited about the opportunity to contribute to your team and support the growth and learning of young children in a nurturing environment.

During my recent volunteer experience at Sunshine Community Center, I successfully developed and implemented engaging lesson plans that catered to diverse learning styles. One of the highlights of my time there was organizing a storytime event that increased children's participation by 50%, fostering a love for reading in our preschoolers. Furthermore, I collaborated with a team of volunteers to create a sensory garden that provided hands-on learning experiences, which was well-received by both children and parents. This initiative not only enhanced our curriculum but also served as a valuable resource for promoting environmental awareness among young learners.

I am particularly drawn to the commitment that Acme Corporation demonstrates in promoting inclusivity and creativity within its educational programs. I believe that my background in child development, combined with my innovative approach to teaching, aligns well with your mission. I am eager to bring my skills in communication, teamwork, and creativity to your team and contribute positively to the preschool environment.

I would welcome the opportunity to discuss how my background, skills, and enthusiasms can align with the goals of Acme Corporation. Thank you for considering my application; I look forward to the possibility of contributing to your team and supporting the development of your preschool children.

Sincerely,

Emily Johnson