

Jordan Lee Nguyen

January 16, 2026

Acme Corporation

RE: No Experience Immigration Lawyer

Dear Hiring Manager,

I am writing to express my enthusiasm for the No Experience Immigration Lawyer position at Acme Corporation, which I discovered on your careers page. As a recent graduate of the University of California, Berkeley, with a Juris Doctor degree, I am eager to apply my legal education and passion for immigration law in a practical setting. I am particularly drawn to your firm's commitment to advocating for underrepresented communities, which aligns with my own values and aspirations as a legal professional.

During my time at law school, I was actively involved in the Immigration Legal Clinic, where I gained hands-on experience researching complex immigration issues and assisting clients in navigating the application process. This role honed my skills in legal writing and helped me develop a keen understanding of immigration policies and procedures. Additionally, I participated in a pro bono project that provided legal assistance to refugee families, which further solidified my commitment to this field. I successfully collaborated with a team to prepare case briefs and presentations, which ultimately had a positive impact on several families seeking asylum.

I am excited about the opportunity to contribute to Acme Corporation as a dedicated and passionate advocate for immigrant rights. I am eager to learn from your esteemed team and leverage my academic background and volunteer experiences to support your clients effectively. I would appreciate the opportunity to discuss how my skills and enthusiasm could align with the goals of your firm. Thank you for considering my application, and I look forward to the possibility of contributing to your team.

Sincerely,

Jordan Lee Nguyen