

Jessica Taylor

January 16, 2026

Acme Corporation

RE: Promotion Speech Language Pathologist

Dear Hiring Manager,

I am writing to express my enthusiasm for the Promotion Speech Language Pathologist position at Acme Corporation, as advertised on your careers page. With a strong commitment to enhancing communication skills and a proven track record in my field, I am excited about the opportunity to contribute to your team and help clients achieve their communication goals.

In my previous role at Better Speech Clinic, I successfully developed and implemented individualized therapy plans for a diverse range of clients, which resulted in a 30% improvement in patient outcomes as measured by standardized assessments. I introduced a new group therapy program that focused on social communication skills, leading to increased engagement and participation from clients, and was recognized by management for my innovative approach. Additionally, I collaborated with educators and parents to create a comprehensive communication strategy for children with speech delays, which not only boosted their confidence but also facilitated smoother transitions into mainstream classrooms.

I am particularly drawn to Acme Corporation's commitment to evidence-based practices and community outreach. I am eager to bring my experience in developing targeted interventions and my passion for client advocacy to your organization. I would welcome the opportunity to discuss how my skills and achievements align with your needs and how I can contribute to the ongoing success of your speech-language pathology team. Thank you for considering my application; I look forward to the possibility of discussing this exciting opportunity with you.

Sincerely,

Jessica Taylor