

Jessica A. Thompson

January 16, 2026

Acme Corporation

RE: Relocation Litigation Attorney

Dear Hiring Manager,

I am writing to express my enthusiasm for the Relocation Litigation Attorney position at Acme Corporation, as advertised on your company's careers page. With a robust background in real estate law and litigation, combined with my passion for ensuring equitable relocation practices, I am excited about the opportunity to contribute to your esteemed team.

In my previous role at Smith & Associates, I successfully represented a diverse range of clients in relocation disputes, achieving a 95% success rate in arbitration and mediation outcomes. One notable case involved negotiating a settlement for a family facing unjust relocation due to a government project, which not only secured favorable financial compensation but also ensured their right to remain in the community. Additionally, I led a team in a high-profile case that challenged the zoning decisions impacting low-income neighborhoods, resulting in a landmark ruling that set a precedent for future relocation cases in our jurisdiction.

I am particularly drawn to this position at Acme Corporation due to your commitment to advocating for clients' rights during relocation processes. I admire your innovative approach to complex litigation and your focus on community involvement. I am eager to bring my legal expertise and successful track record in relocation litigation to your firm, ensuring that your clients receive the best possible representation and outcomes.

I would welcome the opportunity to discuss my candidacy further and explore how my experience aligns with the goals of Acme Corporation. Thank you for considering my application. I look forward to the possibility of contributing to your team.

Sincerely,

Jessica A. Thompson