

Emily Johnson

January 16, 2026

Acme Corporation

RE: Speech Language Pathologist

Dear Hiring Manager,

I am writing to express my enthusiasm for the Speech Language Pathologist position at Acme Corporation, as advertised on your careers page. With a strong commitment to improving clients' communication abilities and a passion for helping individuals reach their full potential, I am excited about the opportunity to contribute to your esteemed team.

In my previous role at Bright Futures Therapy Center, I successfully developed and implemented individualized therapy plans for over 50 clients, focusing on a variety of speech and language disorders. One of my key achievements involved collaborating with a multidisciplinary team to create an innovative program for children with Autism Spectrum Disorder, which resulted in a 30% improvement in expressive language skills over six months. Additionally, I conducted a series of parent workshops that educated families on effective communication strategies, which led to enhanced carryover of skills at home and increased client satisfaction.

I am particularly drawn to Acme Corporation because of your commitment to evidence-based practices and community engagement. I believe that my experience in utilizing the latest therapeutic techniques, coupled with my ability to build strong relationships with clients and their families, aligns well with your mission. I am eager to bring my skills in assessment, intervention, and client advocacy to your organization.

I would welcome the opportunity to discuss how my background, skills, and certifications can contribute to the success of your team. Thank you for considering my application. I look forward to the possibility of collaborating and contributing to the impactful work at Acme Corporation.

Sincerely,

Emily Johnson